TOUCHSTONE EDUCATION

THE UK'S LEADING PROPERTY
INVESTMENT EDUCATION

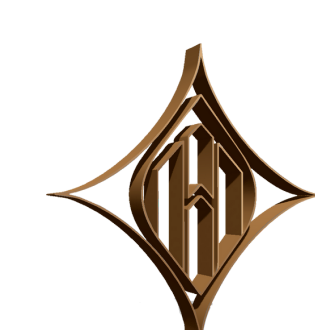

Touchstone Education is the UK's leading property investment education provider. Founded by Paul and Aniko Smith, Touchstone exists to inspire people to financial freedom through knowledge and gives people the systems, tools and confidence to change their lives through sound property investments.

The company started when Paul was made redundant from his job as a Managing Director for a multi-national corporation and having already achieved success through property, he wanted to help others to achieve the same wealth as he had. Touchstone has seen thousands of students benefit from courses and the alumni has a portfolio worth over £1 billion. Company directors Paul and Aniko Smith, Abi Hookway and Gordie Dutfield have multi-million pound property portfolios.

The Wealth Academy programme is intrinsically designed to give you the knowledge that you need to take immediate action.

WE ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO HEARING ABOUT THE AMAZING FUTURE YOU ARE GOING TO REACH
